RSM International announces further growth with new member firm in Poland

RSM International, the worldwide audit, tax and consulting network of independent firms, has further strengthened its global client service coverage with the admission of Polish firm KZWS to the network. RSM also recently admitted new firms in Romania and Hungary, continuing its drive to ensure full client representation across the CEE region.

KZWS has five offices in the cities of Warsaw, Poznan, Krakow and Wroclaw with 58 professional staff and 10 partners. Since 2006 KZWS has focused primarily on the provision of services to international companies which comprise approximately 80 percent of its current client base. There are specialist German, French and English desks that operate within its tax, advisory, audit, accountancy and international departments.

Jean Stephens, CEO, RSM International said, "We receive membership enquiries from potential member firms every day, but we only consider those that share our strategic vision to partner and advise growing international companies. KZWS stands out in terms of both its quality values and ambition. It offers excellent service to clients in Poland and its admission to RSM International means clients of RSM member firms with business interests in Poland will be represented at the highest level."

Bartosz Milaszewski, Managing Partner of KZWS said, "RSM International has admitted many new leading firms over the last year and we are pleased to have successfully completed its stringent due diligence and quality review process. We now look forward to offering our clients a global service and working with RSM member firms around the world."

About RSM International

RSM International is a worldwide network of independent accounting and consulting firms. RSM International and its member firms are separate and independent legal entities. RSM International does not itself provide accounting or consultancy services. All such services are provided by affiliate members practising on their own account.

RSM is represented by affiliate independent members in 72 countries and brings together the talents of over 30,000 individuals in over 730 offices worldwide. The network's total fee income of US$3.62bn places it amongst the top seven international accounting organisations worldwide. Affiliate member firms are driven by a common vision of providing high quality professional services, both in their domestic markets and in serving the international professional service needs of their client base.

RSM International is a member of the Forum of Firms. The objective of the Forum of Firms is to promote consistent and high quality standards of financial and auditing practices worldwide.
